How We Will Calculate Your Balance: We use a method called “average daily balance (including new transactions).” See “How Do You Calculate The Interest Charge?” section below.

†The account transactions we treat as Purchases include “Gaming, Sports App and iGaming Loads,” which are transactions submitted by a merchant using Merchant Category Code (MCC) 4829, 6051, 7800, 7801, 7802, or 7995. Merchants are assigned an MCC based on the merchant's primary line of business. GBank does not determine the MCC used by any merchant. The MCC is determined by the card network based on the merchant's primary line of business.

Non-gaming transactions or purchases transactions other than to MCC 4829, 6051, 7800, 7801, 7802, & 7995 are limited to $3,000.00 per transaction.

How We Calculate Variable Rates Based on the Prime Rate: We use the highest U.S. Prime Rate listed in the online The Wall Street Journal (www.wsj.com) on the last business day of the month, in which the rate change is reflected during the next billing cycle after the month in which the index rate change was published. For the purchase APR, we add from 12.49% - 20.49% to the Prime Rate based on your creditworthiness and other attributes. When we evaluate your creditworthiness, we consider your credit report, all the information you provided and other information. Some customers may receive higher rates, but the same cash back rewards offer. For the cash advance APR, we add 21.99% to the Prime Rate. Your variable APRs will never be less than zero or higher than 27.24%.

What Are The Daily Periodic Rates Used To Calculate My Interest? The daily periodic rate for your Purchase APR is 0.05271233%, 0.05545205%, 0.05819178%, 0.06093151%, 0.06367123%, 0.06641096%, 0.06915068%, 0.07189041%, and 0.07463014% and Cash Advance APR is 0.07873973%. See “How Do You Calculate The Interest Charge?” section in the below.

How Do You Calculate The Interest Charge? We use a method called Average Daily Balance (including new transactions). Under this method, we first calculate your daily balance; for each segment, 1) take the beginning balance and add in new transactions and the periodic interest charge on the previous day's balance, then 2) subtract any payments and credits for that segment as of that day. The result is the daily balance for each segment. However, if you paid your previous month's balance in full (or if your balance was zero or a credit amount), new transactions which post to your purchase or special purchase segments are not added to the daily balances. Also, transactions subject to a grace period are not added to the daily balances. Next, to find your Average Daily Balance: 1) add the daily balances together for each segment, and 2) divide the sum by the number of days in the billing cycle. At the end of each billing cycle, we determine your Interest Charge as follows: 1) multiply your Average Daily Balance by the daily periodic rate (APR divided by 365) for that segment, and 2) multiply the result by the number of days in the billing period. NOTE: Due to rounding or a minimum interest charge, this calculation may vary from the interest charge actually assessed.

GBank Application Disclosures, Terms and Conditions

Initial Account Use and Risk Review: For the first five (5) calendar days after account opening, the account may have limited or restricted usage to ensure identity verification, fraud mitigation, and security reasons. In addition, transactions may be declined if deemed high risk due various reasons in an effort to mitigate suspected fraudulent activity, including, but not limited to, identity theft. Contact client support if you believe a decline is in error.

Account Suspension, Restriction, or Closure: We reserve the right to suspend, restrict, or close your account at any time, as permitted by law, for reasons including, but not limited to, risk management, fraud prevention, security, compliance, or other legitimate business purposes. Closure or restriction may result in loss of transaction privileges and forfeiture of unredeemed rewards.

Temporary Account Restrictions: To protect your account, we may place temporary restrictions if we identify suspicious or unusual activity. This includes situations where a recent transaction attempt on your card occurs at a merchant or location flagged as high-risk. Restrictions may include, but are not limited to, a temporary block on your card. These measures can remain in effect for up to 20 days during investigation.

USA Patriot Act: To help government fight the funding of terrorism and money laundering activities, Federal law requires all financial institutions to obtain, verify, and record information that identifies each person who opens an account. What this means to you: When you open an account, we will ask you for your name, address, date of birth, and other information that will allow us to identify you. We may also ask to see your driver's license or other identifying documents.

Military Lending Act Disclosure; Statement of Military Annual Percentage Rate ("MAPR"): Federal law provides important protections to members of the Armed Forces and their dependents relating to extensions of consumer credit. In general, the cost of consumer credit to a member of the Armed Forces and his or her dependent may not exceed an Annual Percentage Rate of 36%. This rate must include, as applicable to the credit transaction or account: (1) the costs associated with credit insurance premiums; (2) fees for ancillary products sold in connection with the credit transaction; (3) any application fee charge (other than certain application fees for specified credit transactions or accounts); and (4) any participation fee charged (other than certain participation fees for a credit card account). What To Do If You Find A Mistake On Your Statement

If you think there is an error on your statement, write to us at:

GBank
P.O. BOX 5401
Omaha NE 68154-0190

In your letter, give us the following information:

- Account information: Your name and account number.
- Dollar amount: The dollar amount of the suspected error.

GBank Application Disclosures, Terms and Conditions

As of 02/03/2026

- Description of problem: If you think there is an error on your bill, describe what you believe is wrong and why you believe it is a mistake.

You must contact us:

1. Within 60 days after the error appeared on your statement.
2. At least 3 business days before an automated payment is scheduled, if you want to stop payment on the amount you think is wrong.

You must notify us of any potential errors in writing. You may call us, but if you do we are not required to investigate any potential errors and you may have to pay the amount in question.

What Will Happen After We Receive Your Letter

When we receive your letter, we must do two things:

1. Within 30 days of receiving your letter, we must tell you that we received your letter. We will also tell you if we have already corrected the error.
2. Within 90 days of receiving your letter, we must either correct the error or explain to you why we believe the bill is correct.

While we investigate whether or not there has been an error:

- We cannot try to collect the amount in question, or report you as delinquent on that amount.
- The charge in question may remain on your statement, and we may continue to charge you interest on that amount.
- While you do not have to pay the amount in question, you are responsible for the remainder of your balance.
- We can apply any unpaid amount against your credit limit.

After we finish our investigation, one of two things will happen:

- If we made a mistake: You will not have to pay the amount in question or any interest or other fees related to that amount.
- If we do not believe there was a mistake: You will have to pay the amount in question, along with applicable interest and fees. We will send you a statement of the amount you owe and the date payment is due. We may then report you as delinquent if you do not pay the amount we think you owe.

If you receive our explanation but still believe your bill is wrong, you must write to us within 10 days telling us that you still refuse to pay. If you do so, we cannot report you as delinquent without also reporting that you are questioning your bill. We must tell you the name of anyone to whom we reported you as delinquent, and we must let those organizations know when the matter has been settled between us.

If we do not follow all of the rules above, you do not have to pay the first $50 of the amount you question even if your bill is correct.

Your Rights If You Are Dissatisfied With Your Credit Card Purchases

If you are dissatisfied with the goods or services that you have purchased with your credit card, and you have tried in good faith to correct the problem with the merchant, you may have the right not to pay the remaining amount due on the purchase.

To use this right, all of the following must be true:

1. The purchase must have been made in your home state or within 100 miles of your current mailing address, and the purchase price must have been more than $50. (Note: Neither of these are necessary if your purchase was based on an advertisement we mailed to you, or if we own the company that sold you the goods or services.)
2. You must have used your credit card for the purchase. Purchases made with cash advances from an ATM or with a check that accesses your credit card account do not qualify.
3. You must not yet have fully paid for the purchase.

If all of the criteria above are met and you are still dissatisfied with the purchase, contact us in writing at:
